Not a little excitement was caused in the local share market yesterday afternoon, says the N. Q. Daily News of the 11th July, by the publication of a telegram which had been received from the estate by the office of the Shanghal-Language Tobacco. Company, to the following effect:-" Yesterday 10,000 gallons flowing." This was nuderatood to mean that oil had at last been struck in quantity, and shares, which had previously been quoted at Tls. 30. were in strong demand, there being bayers at Tle. 60.

Among Prince Henry's purchases in Tokyo, says the Japan Mail, there are to be some very handsome combs and hair-ping for ladies use. and some rich Japanese contumes. The Prince will also have the pleasure of carrying away some magnificent specimens of lacquer. The Tokyo Municipality have given him a pair of writing boxes of that material, valged at two taken the same form! Lacquer coming from the Imperial collection is always of the very highest type. The susuribuke in this case were made by Uyomara Homin, one of the most celebrated among modern lauguer-makers.

Inspector Gillies, who had been in charge of the Police Station at Chaungehow for some time, died at the Government Civil Hospital of fever yesterday morning. It was only on Wednesday that he came in from his station, but he had been suffering from fever for invitation some days previously. Being the only European member of the Force at Chanigehow he struggled on with his duties until compelled to desigt by exhaustion, and it was probably this delay in availing himself of hospital treatment that allowed the disease to get such a hold on his system. The deceased Inspector, who was t native of Skye, came out in 1885 with a batch of man from the Glasgow Police. He was a very efficient officer, highly respected in the Force and by many civilian friends, and his YUs are acknowledged by the lead. death will be deeply regretted. He and the Teguha tribe attacked and killed several of the Banswon tribe. Mr. Fraser, a Government official, last April, went in person in search of Mat Salleh to call him to account Mr. Fraser met Mat Salleh in person, and had great difficulty in bringing him round. The following are extracts from Mr. Fraser's

I then spoke to Mat Salleh about attacking the Sanswon and told him Government expected him to stop that sort of thing, and asked him to helo me to bring about a meeting of the obiefs of the Tegulius and the chiefs of banswon and Tambunan; to this he at once agreed and a musting was arranged for next lay. I pointed out that any question of compensation for loss of buffaloes or other property and for heads must be religated to a luture date, as both sides were far too sure for there to be any chances of a quiet settlement at present, Mat Silleh wished dispense altogether with any question of compausation. I. however, pointed out that as he and his friends had seized upwards of eighty oatfaloes and also other property, besides killing over thirty people, and whereas he and his friends had lost no property and very few lives. his suggestion was rather one-sided and unfair: to he agreed to leave the question for settlement at a future meeting. OPENING OF THE NEW PREMISES OF THE HUNGKUNG AND SHANG HAI BANKING CORPORATION AT PEKING.

Peking, 3rd July. From time to time we have noticed the growth of the new Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Building on Logation Street. We are now happily able to announce its completion, for to-day the Banking Corporation commence doing business under the new roof. On Saturday ast; in response to the invitation of Mr. E. G. Heller, the agent of the Bank here, there assembled in the new building the most representative gathering ever collected under one roof in Peking. A sumptuous tiffin was served under the management of M. A. Chamot of Tallien and Co., restaurateurs, at which sixty-five covers were laid. The guests embraced sixteen nutionalities, vie. English, American, German, French, Russian, Japanese. Chineso, Dutch, Spanish, Italian, Belgian, Austrian, Swiss, Scotok, Irish, etc., The health of H. M. the Queen was drunk

Hsu, Emperor of China. It seems carious that in all that collection of nationalities, not one suggested drinking the Empress Downgers's health, although all responded gladly to the "health" of Kuang Hau. Among the notables present were H.E. Mr. Cologan, doyen of the Diplomatic Body, H. C. Baron von Ketteler, R.E. Knobel, H.E. Li Hung-chang, H.E. Hu Chih-fen, H.E. Hen Pa, President of the Board | Russia. of War, Wu Ting-fon, Yuan Ch'ang, Yu Kong, and three other Ministers of the Tsungli Yaman. Mr. Cologan delivered in French a happy little speech of congratulation to the Banking Company on possessing such fine quarters to work in, and congratulations to the community at large on having such an enterprising and reliable business house to transact our business. Mr. Hillier, for the Bank, replied in a modest speech, expressing the pleasure he felt in entertaining so many guests, all patrons or friends of the institution he represented, and announced that the managers had outhorised the installing of a large town clock in the apper storey of the standing, as was also the health of H. M. Kuang

This was greated with cheers, for in Peking we have no definite time, every one working his own watch in a go-as-you-please style After tiffin the guests were shown turough the magnificant building, the finest by long odds in Peking, and after an hour of social chat and good fellowship, departed well pleased with the occasion, the building, and the tiffin.—N. Mr. Hillier's being as follows :- Mr. Cologan.

beg to thank you on behalf of the Bank. my sentiments which you have just now been so good as to express towards us; and I beg you to allow me this opportunity, your Excellencies and Gentlemen, of extending my sincere thanks to you for the honour you have done me by responding to my invitation, to easist to-day at the inauguration of this new building. The interests of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank are so bound up with the trade and development, financial and commercial of this great Empire, that the provision of a fitting establishment in its capital would seem destined to follow, somer or later, in the natural course of events, while the important financial rolations which have, during the past few years, grown up between this Bank and the Imperial Chinese Government have rendered that step one of increasing necessity. Of the liberality with which that necessity has been recognised and met by the Directors of the Bank, I leave this building to speak for itself. It introduces a new and a more ambitious style of building jule Peking, and I look upon it as a particularly happy circumstance that its completion should concide with the improvements now being carried on in Legation Street,thanks to their Excellencies the Ministers of the Tsungli Yamen. Attached, as no doubt that all will unite in the hope that the innovations named may be the models and precursors much further improvement in the same direction. While on the subject of the building I would mention that our Chief Managor. Sir Thomas Jackson, when on a recent visit here. decided that its restulness would not be complete without the addition of a public clock with scale, of the Customs clock in Shanghai. The matter has been referred to the Directors, and I have now pleasure in announcing to you that grant for the clock has been sanctioned, and that I have justructions to procure one worthy of the building without delig. I trust that the clock will keep correct time and that it will be a benefit and convenience to the community of Peking. It only remains for me now to assure you once more, your Excellencies and Gontlemen, of my deep appreciation of the honour you have conferred upon me and the Corporation I represent by Your presence here to-day. I trust I may venture to interpret it as an expression of the esteem and good-will which it is the desire of the Hoogkong and Shanghai Bank to earn in all its business roletions, whether with the Chinese Government or with the citizens of Foreign Powers whose business brings them to this country! I trust. your Excellencies and Gontlemen, that I shall frequently have the pleasure of receiving you in this building again, not only for the transaction of business, but to claim a hospitality
